The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Mr. Vice President:

As President of the Senate, I am sure you would be interested in a new effort CIA is making with respect to the Congress. It is the attached Intelligence Checklist for Congress. This publication is specifically designed to serve the Congress and to focus on those matters which I believe to be of particular interest to the Congress. It is published on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of each week and is made available to the ~~senior staff~~ Members of the Senate Armed Services, Appropriations and Foreign Relations Committees (It is also provided to the House Armed Services, and Appropriations Committees). It is delivered each morning, held in the personal control of the staff member and picked up each afternoon. The object is to make it as convenient as possible for the Senators and ~~Members~~ to have direct access to these matters. I would be pleased to provide a copy to you if you should so desire, and I would certainly be appreciative of any comments you might have on it.

Representatives
Respectfully,

W. E. Colby
Director
